PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

God of Grace, we come to confession today aware of all the ways that others have hurt us and alienated us, and yet we forget that we are often responsible for actions that have led to a sense of isolation for others. Forgive us and remind us that we live in community and that we must be people who forgive, people who seek to help others, and people who who reach out of our pain to help those in need. We now pray silently for the sins that weigh heavily on our hearts.
